Dear Roger,

Rosemary and I are writing to you to express our sincere thanks for all your excellent work in bringing our land forward for development and subsequent sale.

We recognise that it wasn't a straightforward case, but your grasp of the intricacies involved was invaluable in completing the deal and enriching us considerably! My contract at work ends in December 2001, when I will then retire, and Rosemary is trying to make up her mind about whether or not to retire now.

We've changed the cars and booked the big holiday already. Our remaining challenge is to spend the rest before the kids can inherit it!

With many thanks and all good wishes,
